

Quick Guide to Registering on the LOSSC Forum

In your internet browser, connect to <http://lossc.phpbbhosts.co.uk/index.php>

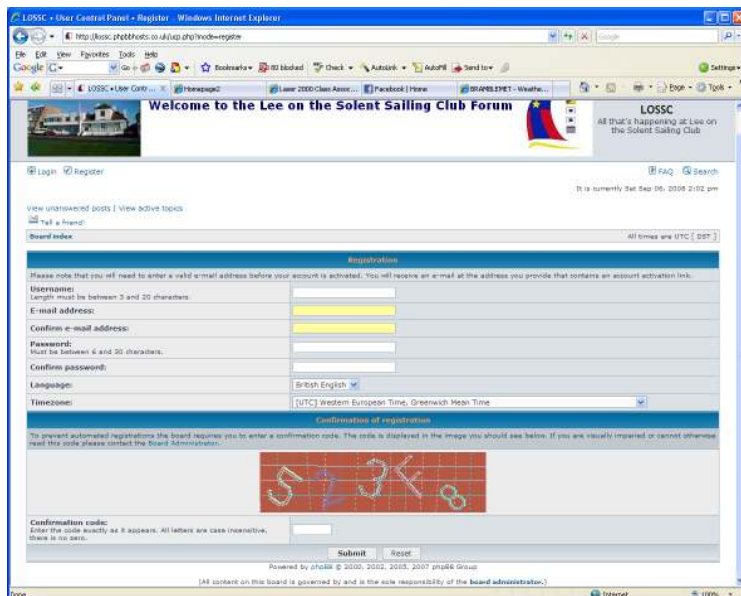

At the top left of the screen, there is a link to Register, as shown here

Click the link, and you will be presented with the rules of the Forum, which must be agreed to Complete the page as directed, and click Submit. You must have a valid email address, as you will now be sent an email.

The email will confirm your username and password, and provide you with a link. You must visit this link to activate your account, until then you will still not be able to log on.

If you do not receive an email, and you are sure the address you gave is correct it may have been blocked by your spam filter.

Please email me on lossc-membership@ntlworld.com with your chosen user name as I can activate your account manually
